

West Slope Recovery, Inc.

Phase II

When achieving the status of Phase II, the individual has shown consistency in following the rules and being responsible. As a Phase II you will be responsible for and expected to;

1. Be a positive ROLE MODEL, by following the rules.
2. Support the new clients, remembering how it was when you arrived.
3. Accompany Phase I clients to outside activities, recreation, 12 Step meetings, Court and Doctor visits.
4. Apply for and participate in resident counsel.

With the responsibilities of becoming a Phase II you may be able to attend more recovery related outside activities which may include establishing a home group, finding a sponsor and/or working on family relationships. All outside activities must be made in advance and approved by primary counselor or supervisor.
